involved in doing the track is what is causing the time delays. Meggan also reported BLM tried to press charges against Public Works for trespass which slowed down the progress in the pass. BLM is now currently attending meetings and showing interest in the completion of the project.

VIII. Comments by the General Public

Ken Derschan announced Parks and Recreation has plans to do Dugouts for the Ballfield and Sandy Mesquite Valley Association took care of some fencing repairs. Ken Derschan also questioned if there were ways of getting Valley kids transportation to participate in programs such as the free lunch put on by the school and the community. Meggan was not sure if that is something Silver Rider could do, but said she would ask. Christine Brown announced July 18-22 the Community Church will have Vacation Bible School for all ages from 5:30-8:30pm and July 25-29 the Baptist Church will have Vacation Bible School 9:00-12:00n with evening events. Mary Lou Hamberg announced the Senior Center Pancake Breakfast for the 16th from 8:00-10:30am. Bonnie Schneiderman announced Keystone will be having an Ice Cream Social on the 17th from 2-4pm.

IX. Next Meeting Date
